3. Locate the current population of all of the provinces and territories in Canada (perhaps from your agenda, the internet, or an atlas). Using those statistics and the Total Aboriginal Population column in Figure 7.4 on page 63 (copied for you below), calculate the percentage of Aboriginals that live in each province, then rank the provinces in order from highest percentage of Aboriginals to lowest percentage of Aboriginals.

Province or Territory	Aboriginal Population	Total Population	Percentage of Aboriginals	Rank of Percentages
Newfoundland and Labrador	18 775	509 739
Prince Edward Island	1345	142 266
Nova Scotia	17 010	942 506
New Brunswick	16 990	751 755
Quebec	79 400	7 907 375
Ontario	188 315	13 210 667
Manitoba	150 045	1 235 412
Saskatchewan	130 185	1 045 622
Alberta	156 225	3 720 946
British Columbia	170 025	4 530 960
Yukon Territory	6540	34 525

Which provinces and/or territories have the greatest percentage of Aboriginal peoples? Why?

Which provinces and/or territories have the lowest percentage of Aboriginal peoples? Why?

Explain why Aboriginal Leaders have made land claims against governments in Canada

What are two reasons that the governments might be reluctant to settle land claims?

Why might some other Canadians not support land claim settlements
